Clarence Avery

January 1, 1934 – November 19, 1934

Our Dad was a unique fella. He felt the importance of family being together was critically important having lost his parents Frank Avery and Eleeze Mc Gehee at a very early age of 6. This changed his perspective on life totally which this carried in how he raised his children Derrick, Donald(Adrienne) & Deneen until they became grown. All he wanted as he grew up was for his family to come up with both parents.

Preceded in death are many loved ones his wife - Irma Jean(Pat) as well as brothers: James, Walter, Calvin, Pete, Ted and the one sister, Annie Mae.

Dad had many great friends in his finals years and we see our sister, Deneen being the person Dad used as his sidekick. Deen took dad everywhere and we mean everywhere... from Arizona, Kentucky, California, Georgia .... in dads last years she took him everywhere. And we mean everywhere.

Friendship... for Dad friendship meant being a friend to everyone. His true friends we all knew as he made sure that was the case. There are 2 with us today. Mrs. Joan Connors and Mr. Ponce Davis who they have known on another since grammar school days.
There were also people he introduced us to where we thought, "would you ever want to be alone walking in an alley with this guy?"
An Emphatic, NO!

We Thank God for blessing us with Dad as a great Dad and granddad of 5 - Jordan, Matthew, Mitchell, Marcus & Michael. His Great grands - Levi & Leia and friend to so many people.
