Honoring a Life of Love

A butterfly lights beside us like a sunbeam, and for a brief moment, it's glory and beauty belong to our world. But, then it flies on again, and although we wish it could have stayed, we feel blessed to have seen it.

We celebrate the life of

Carol Ann McKay

Henry

1941 – 2026

Carol McKay, 84, was born in Tulalip, WA December 24, 1941 and went home to be with the Lord October 26, 2026. A devoted mother, grandma, sister, auntie and friend. Her life was marked by a deep love for family, an unwavering faith, and a heart that never stopped smiling. She left the world with the strength of forgiveness, a legacy of grace that will inspire generations.

Her life was defined by the deep, enduring love she shared with her sons and their family — a love without measure, a constant presence in their lives, and a legacy they will carry forward.

Carol was preceded in death by the father of her boys, Arnold McKay Jr. and other beloved family members.

She is survived by sons, Douglas (Cathy) and Kyle McKay; grandchildren, Faith Farmer, Claire McKay, Breanna Wietrick, Jance Groff, Joshua Langrebe, Lois (Ted) Langrebe; siblings Sandra Swanson, Jeannie McCoy, Pete Henry, Clay McCluskey, Annette Napeahi, Skookie Henry and niece Cara (Darrell) Tohannie, great niece Lola Hatch and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Services will be November 5th and 6th, Tulalip, WA. The family also invites all family and friends to honor Carol in their own way and keep the memories close.

Flowers are welcome, and memorial contributions may also be made to The NOAH Center (Northwest Organization for Animal Help).

The family is grateful to caregivers Dahli Megiveron-Marchis and Juanita Moniaga for their kindness, patience and devoted care.

Kindness, faith, and love will never be forgotten.
