Forever Loved, Never Forgotten

Psalm 138:8

"The Lord will work out His plans for my life, for Your faithful love, O Lord, endures forever. Don't abandon me, for You made me."
Forever in our hearts, forever in God's care. ❤️

A Poetic Farewell
To an unplanned departure.
A devoted mother who refused to let circumstance define her, choosing instead to create a path uniquely her own. A lover of life, self-motivated and deeply respected, she carried herself with quiet strength and undeniable dignity. She was a true Charleston, South Carolina girl, rooted in Southern charm, resilience, and warmth.

Whether through her dedication to family, her service to others, or the friendships she cherished, she left an unforgettable mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her. Though her departure was unexpected, the legacy she leaves behind is one of perseverance, laughter, and self-love.

Her strength inspired others to embrace their own worth, her kindness uplifted those around her, and her spirit continues to shine through the lives she touched. Though she may no longer walk beside us, her story lives on in cherished memories, shared laughter, and the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Natarsha Maree

Maree/Queen Mimi Tarsha

March 20, 1969 – August 21, 2026

Natarsha dedicated more than 20 years of her life to social services, ending a distinguished career as a supervisor with the New York City Human Resources Administration. Her commitment to helping others reflected the compassion, strength, and leadership that defined her character.

A lover of music, mother and amazing friend, always sharing her greatest joys with the ones closet to her. A secret writer to her autobiography capturing the story of a life uniquely her own. Tarsha's favorite saying, "It is what it is," reflected her resilience, wisdom, and ability to accept life as it came while continuing to move forward with grace.

If you had the pleasure of knowing her, then a part of her journey lives within you. Her wish was not to be mourned, but to be celebrated through shared moments, cherished stories, and treasured photographs. She never missed a birthday, always making those she loved feel special and remembered.

May she forever be remembered as Queen Tarsha, Mommy, Maree, Mimi Tarsha, Tardy, and Red. Each name represents a unique chapter of her life, the countless hearts she touched, and the lasting legacy of love, laughter, and strength she leaves behind. Though she may be gone from our sight, she will remain forever present in the hearts of those who knew and loved her

She leaves behind a family who will carry forward her legacy of love, faith, and strength. Cherished and dearly loved by her three sons, Tyrek Parrish, Jatwaun Parrish, and Damon Maree; her daughter, Daionne Parrish; and her beloved grandsons, Dayell and Amari McAllister. She also leaves behind a host of relatives, dear friends, and loved ones who will continue to honor her memory and celebrate the life she lived.

Her ashes were spread at The Battery in Charleston, South Carolina, a place she loved to visit and one that forever held a special place in her heart.
