Forever in Our Hearts

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. — Psalm 23:1

William Lee

04/24/1944 – 11/05/2026

My dad William Lee was born in Baton Rough, Louisiana at Our Lady of the Lake Medical Center. Later in life he moved to Los Angeles, California. Fat Daddy started his journey in life with his first job at Jordan Steel Mill and finish his work journey with Los Angeles Court house. My dad loved his family, golf and traveling. Fat Daddy was a very clean dresser and always had jokes. I gave him the nickname Fat Daddy after he started calling me Skinny Minnie. When my mom passed away, he made sure that he would come down every holiday to San Diego, CA so he could spend time with the family and called the family every single day at 7pm. Fat Daddy lived, love and enjoyed life like no other. Now, its time for him move on to his next adventure in life.

WE LOVE YOU SO MUCH DAD AND MISS YOU
