

The Lord stood with me and strengthened me. 2 Timothy 4:17

After a brave battle with cancer, our beloved is at peace now in the Lord's Keep.

Charles Edward Honaker, Jr.

aka "Scrappy" by family and friends

October 30th, 1955 – Friday, May 1st, 2026

Scrappy led a very adventurous life and worked in many professions, ultimately enjoying a career as Resource Recovery Facility Director for the city government of Harrisonburg, Virginia; from which he retired; settling in a home on Lake Sinclair in Georgia, enjoying a million-dollar view.

Charlie is preceded in death by parents Charles Edward Honaker, Sr.; mother Betty Jane Riley; uncle Dewey Honaker, and late wife Janice Honaker.

Charlie is survived by wife, Daphne Byler-Honaker; sister Brenda Coon and brother-in-law John Coon, and their daughter Barbara Coon, of Ohio; son Chad Honaker of Florida; son Robert Montville (Alex Klein Montville), and grandson Dylan, of Virginia; and cousin Dewey Honaker (Denise Honaker), of West Virginia.

Celebration of Life to Honor

Charlie "Scrappy"

23/May/2026 11am

Pierce Memorial Methodist Church

21 Boland Street, Sparta, Ga. 31087

Memorial donations requested to go to Pine Point Hospice, Milledgeville, Ga.; or to his beloved church, Pierce Memorial Methodist (directed to the piano fund.)

Officiant: Pastor Darrell McGinnis

Reception and Gathering to follow in the church fellowship hall @ 1:00pm