

The seamstress has left the building...

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. – Psalm 23:1

After a period of declining health, we say goodbye to

Nancy Woodworth

Known fondly as Granny and "G"

January 22, 1936 – September 29, 2026

Nancy is remembered for her creativity, many artistic talents, particularly drawing, painting, sewing & singing, as well as her faith in the Lord.

Robert Woodworth

5 adult children: Christine (Stanley) Michael, Cathleen, Cynthia (Bobby) and Robert

7 adult grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren

Service details TBD

Jacksonville National Cemetery

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to narcolepsynetwork.org in Nancy's memory.

The family extends heartfelt thanks to the staff of Wyndham Lakes Senior Living, & Baptist Medical Center South, Jacksonville, Florida for their compassionate care. With special thanks to Mike Duffy, RN & Haley Thomas, RN of Baptist South. Cremation arrangements entrusted to Jacksonville Memory Gardens, Orange Park, Florida. Online condolences may be shared on this memorial page.

Knowing Mom, she's greeting many friends who have crossed the Rainbow Bridge.